<sup>1</sup> On August 2, 2019, the Court entered an Order granting Defendants' Motion for Reconsideration of the Court's December 13, 2017 Order on General Causation, granted Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment, and granted Defendants' Motion to Exclude Plaintiffs' experts Drs. Samet, Jarvis, Stonnington, and Elghobashi. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1920 and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(d), Defendants, as the prevailing party, are entitled to recover costs. Section 1920(2) allows taxation for court reporter fees and deposition transcripts if they are "necessarily obtained for use in the case." The general causation discovery depositions listed were necessary because the deponents were possible trial witnesses. Moreover, "[g]enerally, courts allow the prevailing party to recover the costs for depositions noticed and taken by the losing party." Shukh v. Seagate Tech., LLC, No. 10-404, 2014 WL 4348199, at *4 (D. Minn. Sept 2, 2014), vacated on other grounds by 618 Fed. App'x 678 (Fed. Cir. 2015).

<sup>2</sup> On July 15, 2019, the Second Judicial District of the State of Minnesota awarded Defendants $27,586.14 in costs after granting Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment in In re 3M Bair Hugger Litigation, a parallel proceeding. Defendants subtracted this amount from the total costs they now request here so there will not be a double recovery.

<sup>3</sup> Trial and hearing transcripts are taxable by the Court if the transcript was “necessary for use in the case and the requesting party explains why the trial or hearing transcript was necessarily obtained.” D. Minn. Bill of Costs Guide at 5. The transcripts listed here were necessarily obtained and used in the case because they were submitted with Defendants’ Motion for Reconsideration of the Court’s December 13, 2017 Order on General Causation. The Motion for Reconsideration is was a substantive motion that terminated the litigation. “[I]t is appropriate to tax costs for depositions that are used by a party to support a motion for summary judgment or other substantive motions made to the court in connection with the case.” Youssef v. FBI, 762 F. Supp. 2d 76, 86 (D.D.C. 2011).
